

Margins with Left and Right Indent

This block is indented by 36 points on both the left and right margins. This creates an inset block commonly used for extended quotations, formal citations, or highlighted excerpts within longer articles.